Appeals Board Heard Request For Salesroom

Still another round in the fight over C. P. Woodworth's petition to build a new car showroom on a lot at the corner of Haverhill and No. Main sts. was held Monday night, before the Appeals Board and many spectators.

The judges' decision — in this case, the Board, — was not announced.

But throughout the lengthy hearing, there were substantial references to future tilts — when either side may ask court action to reverse the Appeal Board's decision.

Woodworth Motors Co. has asked permission to build a new car sales room on the lot, which has been used for the past five years under a set of restrictions im-

Greens Sale At General Hospital

The Lawrence General Hospital Greens Sale will be held this year in Kurth Auditorium at the Hospital, instead of at the November Club here.

The Dec. 12 sale, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., will feature Christmas decorations. In addition to wreathes, swags, table arrangements and other Christmas decorations, Miss Helen S. Tewksbury and Elizabeth Eidam Laycock are designing corsages.

Mrs. Frederic McCabe is supervising the display and arrangements.

Hostesses holding workshops as a prelude to the sale include Mrs. John B. Edmonds, Mrs. Herbert H. Veit, Mrs. Thomas Sutton, Mrs. George West and Mrs. McCabe. Mrs. Wendell Dillon, Mrs.

STAMP WINDOWS OPEN SATURDAYS UNTIL 5

The Post Office will be open until 5 p.m. Saturday, so that residents can buy stamps for Christmas mail.

Postmaster Stephen A. Boland said the windows will remain open on the regular schedule weekdays, 8-5; but will start longer hours on Saturdays for the convenience of shoppers.

He urged residents to mail cards and letters to distant places by Dec. 10 and to follow this immediately with local cards and letters. Anticipating a heavy rush closer to Christmas, Boland said two Army trucks and a private truck, in addition to the four now in normal service, will be used. About 25 persons will be employed during the height of the rush, he said, to augment the regular force.

Post Office Has 51% Increase

In the first four months of the fiscal year, the Post Office has done 51 percent more business than in a comparable period a year ago.

Postmaster Stephen A. Boland revealed this week that $88,766.50 worth of business, without counting money orders, has been done in the first quarter of the year. At the same time a year ago, the volume was $58,519.24.

"It looks like we'll go over the $200,000 mark this year," Boland commented.

Last year's 12-month total was $173,950.

Although an inspection of the annual business shows a steady growth, Mr. Boland said the sharp increase can be attributed in large part to the Raytheon Manufacturing Co. in Shawsheen.

In addition to that firm's large volume of mail, the postmaster said much of it is sent registered, with resulting large postage fees.

To get an idea of the growth in the office, Mr. Boland said year-

Allis Will Retire From School Board In March

Tomlinson Said He Had OK

Atty. Walter Tomlinson told a crowded Board of Appeals hearing Monday night that he has the full approval and consent of Selectman Sidney P. White, chairman of that Board, to appear before the Board of Appeals as legal counsel. Atty. Tomlinson is an associate member of the Board, sitting in cases when one of the regular members is absent.

Atty. Roland Sherman, representing the Woodworth Motor Co. in Shawsheen, raised the question during the hearing. He told the Board that, if the case ever goes to court, he should have it in the records that he objected to an associate member of the Appeals Board appearing before his own Board as counsel. Atty. Sherman asserted his belief that, knowing the individuals involved, there would be no undue influence as a result of the appearance. But he claimed it to be an unwise precedent for future boards and other individuals.

School Committeeman Frederick Allis Jr. will not seek re-election next March, at the end of his first term in office.

He announced his decision this week, explaining that he and his family expect to be away from Andover during the 1959-'60 school year.

Mr. Allis, since his election to the Committee in 1956, has been in the forefront of the planning for changes in the teachers' salary schedules and for instituting the merit plan.

At the election next March, then, there will be a vacancy caused by Mr. Allis' decision.

Mrs. C. Edward Buchan, whose term also expires at that time, has announced her decision to seek a second three-year term.

Mr. Allis issued the following statement, in announcing his plans:

"I regret that I shall not be able to run for re-election to the Andover School Committee next March.

"The reason for this decision is a simple one. I shall be on leave of absence for the school year 1959-'60 and according to present plans, my family and I will not be living in Andover during that period. Even if I were to be re-elected, I would not be

Taxpayers Seek More Directors

The Taxpayers' Association has asked any member to submit his or her name as a candidate for a seat on the Board of Directors.

At a recent meeting, the Association agreed that it would be desirable to "broaden the base" from which directors are selected.

Thus any interested member has been asked to indicate a desire to be considered. The statement from President Harold Haller follows:

"At a meeting of the Taxpayers' Association, Friday, Nov. 28, the nominating committee was directed to broaden the base from which to select the Association's directors. Accordingly, the nominating committee invites any member of the Association who desires to be a candidate for director to contact either Allyn B. Sears — GR5-2507 or Harold Haller — GR5-2299 not later than Dec. 11 so that all candidates' names will be available for consideration at the Association's annual meeting."

It is expected that the annual meeting will be held in January.

Proceeds of the Open House Tour will provide funds for the Andover Garden Club's special project of planting and maintaining the Andover Historical Society's gardens.

The houses to be open in Andover are those of the Douglas S. Byers, off Phillips st., where a sale of Christmas greens and gifts will be held and also refreshments served to all ticket holders; the Milton J. Meyers, 23 Alden rd., the Ralph H. ANOTHER ROUND IN APPEAL FIGHT posed by the Appeals Board of that time.

Atty. Roland Sherman, speaking for Woodworth, asked the Appeals Board to rule that it does not have jurisdiction in the case. He based that argument on the contention that one paragraph of the zoning by-law spells out permissible uses of a business zone, including that of sales room for new cars, without specifically stating that this is subject to Appeal Board action. Another paragraph of the same by-law, also listing permitted uses of a business zone, including the sales room, specifically refers to Appeals Board responsibilities.

Sherman maintained that the Appeals Board can't ignore the paragraph allowing sales rooms. And he argued that if the persons writing the by-law had wanted this to be reviewed by the Appeals Board, the law would have said so. He believed that the section mentioning this possibility referred only to sales rooms that would include, as part of the business, repairs, storage and sale of gasoline, and similar activities. This is not the case at the moment, he claimed, as there will be nothing built on the lot except a sales room. Mr. Woodworth owns, on the adjoining lot, a garage that does repairs and where gasoline is sold.

Thus, Sherman argued, the Appeals Board should tell the building inspector to issue a permit for construction. The inspector, Ernest N. Hall, had first issued, then revoked, a permit. He said the latter action came as a result of reading the 1953 decision, which said Woodworth must get Appeals Board approval before erecting a building on the lot.

Other Requests

In case the Appeals Board does not rule that it does not have jurisdiction, Atty. Sherman asked that the permit be granted without restrictions. He explained that no restriction should be placed on the use of the property that is not consistent with restrictions on other businesses. "You can't make fish of Mr. Woodworth and fowl of the others", he told the Board.

And, in a third request, Sherman also asked the Board not to place any restrictions on the use of the land - if restrictions are placed against it at all - that will "put the business at a handicap in the purpose of the business".

He mentioned one or two restrictions in the 1953 decision - such as allowing "inconspicuous" advertising - that he said utterly defeat the purpose, because advertising has to be conspicuous.

Atty. Walter Tomlinson spoke to the Board against the request, representing the Bay State, Cambridge Mutual and Merrimack Mutual Insurance Companies.

He said the 1953 decision was made because of three reasons:

1. It is the most conspicuous corner in the town;

2. It is the most hazardous corner in town;

3. Whatever is done with it might have a depreciating affect on the rest of the Village.

"Since 1953, there has been no change in circumstances to call for relaxation of the restrictions", he told the Board.

He argued that the safety and welfare of the community, plus protection of property values, should be considered.

Mr. Tomlinson also pointed out to the Board that Mr. Woodworth should, if he does not believe the Board has jurisdiction, go to court to seek a remedy.

He warned that restrictions on lighting, signs and advertising were imposed originally because of a concern about "not having a cheap used car lot". And he told the Board:

"Don't let the issue be clouded. A Class One dealer's license includes the sale of used cars, too".

"I think any change you made in relaxing the restrictions", he continued, "would be overruling a Board that studied this completely and thoroughly".

Sitting on that 1953 Board were Edward O. Hall, now a member of the Board; the late Roy Hardy and Atty. James S. Eastham, who recently retired from the Board after 23 years' service.

Mr. Tomlinson argued that this Board's restrictions had not been challenged by legal counsel for Mr. Woodworth during the last five years. This, in effect, was an answer to Mr. Sherman's complaint that the authority cited in the 1953 decision was in error, as the wrong paragraph reference was written in the decision.

Not Notified

Atty. Halbert Dow addressed the Board, complaining that he had received no notice of the meeting Monday night. He reminded the members that he appeared at the initial hearing last October, representing the Shawsheen Market. At that time, he said, there had been an arrangement to meet again to examine plans for the new sales room. But he said only last-minute notification of cancellation of that meeting was received. And none was forthcoming when the new petition was presented.

Question of Taste

Atty. Sherman told the Board that much of the objection apparently was to the looks of the structure proposed by Mr. Woodworth.

Approaching it from No. Main st., at the square, he agreed it would appear to be built on columns. Other views would look this way, as the structure would be built to give maximum use of the land underneath. He said other new car sales rooms are being built that way these days and argued that aesthetics are not proper grounds for objecting to the structure.

Legal Complexities

Chairman Alfred Fuller told the gathering that many legal problems, more than in most cases, exist and must be solved. He agreed that the Board should decide the case on its merits, without too much reference to past history.

He did assert, however, a belief that a Board has some inherent right, if lacking the written right, to place restrictions, in cases where the Board has the right to make a decision on the subject. Atty. Sherman had questioned the Board's legal right to do so, under the wording of the by-law.

It was towards the end of the session that Atty. Sherman brought up the appearance before the Board of legal counsel who also sits occasionally as an associate member of the Board. He said Mr. Tomlinson's appearance set a precedent which should not be allowed in the town, although he expressed repeatedly his convictions that nothing improper will result in this specific case. Full details of that debate will be found elsewhere in this issue.

Newcomers Will Hold Party

The Christmas meeting of the Andover Newcomer's Club will be held Monday, Dec. 8, at 2:30 p.m. in the Free Christian Church on Elm st.

The theme of the program is to be "Christmas In My Homeland". Descriptions of the customs in various foreign lands will be depicted by members of the group, who are familiar with these countries.

There will be a chance for each member to participate in the spirit of giving by contributing to the "Silent Auction" table, proceeds of which will help to make Christmas gayer in the adopted ward at the Tewksbury State Hospital.

Christmas music and refreshments will be enjoyed.

Will Live In Great Britain

A local woman, alone since the death of her husband last July, is leaving next month to spend her retirement years in her native England.

Mrs. Bessie R. Shorrock, 8 Maple ave., sails Dec. 9, bound for Blackburn, Lancashire, England, where she will take up residence with her sister, Mrs. Arthur Nightingale.

Mrs. Shorrock has been a resident of this area since arriving with her husband in Methuen in 1921. She came there from Canada where the couple spent the preceding year and a half.

The Shorocks returned once to England, about 10 years ago. On their return, they made their home in Andover.

Mrs. Shorrock has been a citizen for more than three decades. She plans to retain American citizenship in England and was impressed with a letter, signed by President Eisenhower, in her visa which asked that the visa holder do her best to create good feeling and accord between the two countries.

In the early 1940s, Mrs. Shorrock was one of several hundred New England men and women decorated with medals from King George VI for their part in aid given the British war effort. She served as chairman of the Bundles for Britain campaign in Methuen. She also received a certificate of merit from the Marchioness of Reading, head of Britain's Women's Volunteer Service.

MOONEY ASSIGNED

William F. Mooney, 32 Burnham rd., has arrived at Fort Dix and been assigned to C Company, 4th Training Regiment of the U.S. Army Training Center, Infantry, for eight weeks of basic training. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Mooney.

TOMLINSON SAID HE HAD OK

Mr. Tomlinson "regretted the personal insult" and told the Appeals Board that he had asked the chairman of the Board of Selectmen, Mr. White, about his rights, because the Selectmen appoint the Appeals Board. He said Mr. White had given him complete freedom to appear as a legal counsel.

He also told the Board that he has only sat on two or three cases in the last couple of years and that he never has asked to be appointed to the Appeals Board.

Chairman Alfred Fuller told both lawyers that he is certain the Appeals Board recognizes all the factors entering into the case, including the matter of representation by counsel.

It was not immediately known this week whether the full Board of Selectmen had acted on Atty.

Tomlinson's request for an opinion about his rights, or whether the query was directed to Mr. White alone.

The hearing actually repeated many of the arguments heard at a similar session in October, on the same subject.

Woodworth seeks removal of restrictions on the lot at Haverhill and No. Main sts., so that he can build a sales showroom on the land. A complete account of the hearing will be found elsewhere in this issue.

Mason Arnold Seeks Election

Mason F. Arnold, 105 Elm st., has announced his candidacy for the one-year term as Selectman.

In making the announcement, Arnold became the fifth sowed candidate and the first for that specific term.

A current member of the Board of Public Works, he first was elected in the 1958 election, defeating Harry Axelrod. He was a candidate for the Republican nomination for Representative this fall.

Arnold is a native of Pawtucket, R. I., and was educated in public schools there. He attended New Hampton School and the University of New Hampshire.

He is a member of the Andover Service Club and of the Antique Automobile Club. Arnold has been active in fund raising efforts for the Lawrence General Hospital.

In addition to operating his own automobile business here, he currently is sales manager for the Woodworth Motor Co. Chevrolet agency. He has been personnel manager of the Owens Corning Fiberglass Co. in Connecticut and was employed in an administrative capacity by the Ciniflex Corp. in New York.

Married to the former Anne Louise Twitchell of Wakefield, the family includes five sons, Jeffrey M., U. S. Naval Air Force; Peter M., U. S. Air Force; Mason F. Jr., student; John L., student and James H., also a student in the public schools.

FINISHED INTENSIVE INFANTRY COURSE

Marine Pfc. Wallis W. Lawrence, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Lawrence, 3 Robandy rd., graduated Nov. 24 from an intensive four-week infantry training course at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

During this period Marines live primarily in the field and take part in bivouacs, marches and muscle building exercises.

This training, followed by two weeks leave, completes the basic Marine Corps training. Graduates are then assigned to specialist schools or a permanent duty assignment.

First Of Science Workshops Held

The first in a series of three workshops in science for Andover elementary school teachers was held at the South School yesterday afternoon.

Plans for two future sessions, scheduled for Jan. 21 and March 11, were announced by Superintendent of Schools Edward L. Erickson. Purposes of the workshops were expressed in terms of reviewing the content, teaching methods, and science experience provided children in elementary school. The organization and planning for Wednesday's meeting and for the remaining activities in the workshop series are the responsibility of a committee of teachers representing Andover's four elementary schools.

To assist in the conduct of the workshops, the teachers' committee has secured the services of Francis X. Mahoney, elementary school science consultant for the publishing firm of Ginn and Company. During the course of the three meetings, Mr. Mahoney will focus attention upon four major areas of study generally included in elementary school physical science. These are air, sound, magnetism, and electricity. Provisions have also been made for demonstrating the use of various teaching materials and for conducting a number of simple experiments to illustrate the teaching of certain concepts in a science study sequence.

At yesterday's session, in addition to an overview of science for elementary school children, Mr. Mahoney discussed ways and means of studying air as a scientific phenomena. Experiments to examine the behavior of air under different conditions were arranged as a way of reviewing a study program for grades one through six.

Teachers serving on the committee to plan the workshops include: Mrs. Jane Sweet and Mrs. Adeline Wright of Central School; Mrs. Carlene Darby and Mrs. Pauline Durgin of Shawheen School; Mrs. Betty Boudreau and Mrs. Jane Goodall of South School; and Miss Alice Dunn and Mrs. Irene Walsh of West School.

"BOOT" TRAINING FINISHED

Gerard A. Burbine, son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Burbine, 11 Brechin ter., graduated from recruit training Nov. 1 at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

The graduation exercises, marking the end of nine weeks of "boot camp", included a full dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries. In nine weeks of instruction, the "raw recruit" is developed into a Navy Bluejacket, ready for duty with the fleet.

Hall Says He Didn't Know Restrictions Were There

To the Editor of the Townsman:

"Here follows a simple statement of facts, the intent of which is to clarify a misleading editorial in the issue of the Townsman of Nov. 26, 1958, dealing with the issuance of a building permit to Mr. C. P. Woodworth.

"The permit was issued under Sec. 6, Chap. 8, of the Zoning By-Laws at a very hastily called meeting at 4 p.m. At this meeting town counsel gave his opinion that he could not see any reason why the building inspector could not issue the permit in question, and it was thereby issued.

"I was not aware, however, that a restriction had been placed upon this lot by decision of the Board of Appeals in 1953. The correct procedure should have been for the petitioner, Mr. Woodworth, to appear before the Board of Appeals to have this restriction removed before applying for a building permit. As I looked further into the situation, it became apparent that the only course open to me was to revoke the permit until such time as Mr. Woodworth should follow the regular channel of the law, and go before the Board of Appeals for the purpose stated above. Had the matter of these restrictions been disclosed, the permit would not have been issued. As present acting building inspector, I have felt it my first duty to uphold the decisions laid down by the governing bodies of the Town of Andover. Acting upon this conviction, I recalled Mr. Woodworth's permit.

Train Whistle Is Disturbing

Robert Grundy and several other residents near the new Abbot well aren't sleeping well these nights. Seems that when the town obtained permission to maintain a right-of-way across the railroad tracks, it became necessary for every train going through the intersection to blow its whistle.

This, despite the fact that the crossing is used on rare occasions and is thoroughly protected against casual use by anyone but the town.

The residents have asked the town to intercede with the railroad, explaining that long, loud whistle blasts in the middle of the night, and all day too, are not the happiest sounds.

Seeking Data On Restrictions On Use Of Richardson School

Reilly Seeks Rate Boost

Board of Public Works member Francis Reilly, on his own behalf and for Joseph Watson, has asked for a reconsideration of snow plowing rates.

He told Board members Monday night that the rates haven't been changed for many years. They presently are $7 an hour for a truck using a town-owned plow; and $7.50 for a truck, with the owner's plow.

Reilly said quotations on equipment received last spring from most local contractors did not generally include the snow plowing. But Chairman Alex Henderson disagreed, claiming that even if all did not include it, some had. And it would not be fair to the ones including it, he stated, to make changes at this time.

Supt. Stanley Chlebowski told the Board that it is becoming increasingly difficult to get private trucks to plow snow, at least among the contractors who have adequate equipment to handle it.

Board Secretary Albert Cole Jr. suggested setting a new top rate at $8 or $8.50 an hour for those using their own plows. But member David Thompson wanted to call for new quotations from anyone interested in plowing the snow.

Chairman Henderson insisted that both steps would be unfair to one or two persons who quoted a price on plowing snow when original quotations were received last spring.

Reilly pointed out that these would be in effect until the end of the year, no longer. There was no action by the Board to implement Reilly's request.

Kings Took Round Two

Standings of the Val-E-Roll Bowling League at the end of the second round was Kings, 16 wins and 8 losses; Aces 13-11; Trumps, 10-14; Jokers, 9-15.

High Triples, Florence Letters,

The Richardson School — abandoned for educational purposes back in the mid-1920's — may be used as the Shawsheen Community Center.

But a suggestion to that end by the Shawsheen Village Improvement Association has not yet been approved by the Selectmen.

For the old building apparently exists under a set of restrictions that pretty well specify what may be done in the structure. At least that's the best guess at the moment, as town officials attempt to trace back old deeds or wills to find the specific language. Selectman William V. Emmons said this week that the building may be used only for "educational" purposes — under which heading it is possible to include activities of a community center. But he said there definitely could never be a private business, or one operated by any veterans' or non-profit group.

Dr. Emmons said there is a mention of the restrictions in town meeting records of 1890, but they are not specifically listed. Town Clerk George Winslow and other town officials are seeking information about the school, how it came to the town, and under what terms. According to the best guess, the school was first in use perhaps 80 years ago.

At this time, the Recreation Committee stores its equipment in the building and spends small sums occasionally for maintenance.

Y - Teens To Meet At Youth Center

The newly organized Andover Y-Teens will meet at the Andover Youth Center tomorrow at 7:15 p.m. This club is one of many sponsored by the Y-Teen department of the Lawrence Y.W.C.A., a member agency of the Greater Lawrence United Fund.

The Y-Teen program, an important part of the Y.W.C.A.'s work with youth which began in 1881, is carried on through democratic clubs. Members choose their own officers and activities and representatives who attend summer camps, local, state, regional, or national conferences, and other similar events.

In the Y-Teen program, young people have an opportunity to develop their individual personalities and to assume community leadership. As members of the Y-Teens, teenagers also can participate in the wide variety of Y.W.C.A. programs including craft classes, discussion groups, service projects and many others.

Membership is open to all Andover High School girls. Further information may be obtained by contacting Mary Jane Britton, 29 Corbett st., or Mrs. Raymond Pucci, teenage program director at the Lawrence Y.W.C.A.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

Candidates, Where Are You?

Politics may take a public vacation for a couple of weeks at Christmas time, when most residents are pre-occupied with shopping and planning for yuletide pleasure.

But we hope there is no respite in individual thinking — specially by men of good character and ability who might consider entering the contests for Selectman.

We now have witnessed the declaration by another town official that he will be a candidate for the job. This makes five official announcements — all from incumbents of elected offices in the town. There are strong indications that at least two more town officials will announce, possibly more.

Are there no men, or women, outside the official family who will seek this office? Or are they playing cat-and-mouse with the voters, waiting to declare themselves when they think they can pick a soft berth?

This is the time to make announcements. It is important that the voters, a majority of whom chose the town manager form of government, have a chance to carefully scan the prospective candidates, well ahead of the election.

We'd like to see many more candidates in the race — not merely incumbents of present offices, who, in most part, were opposed to the manager plan throughout the last two or three years.

Some continuity in government may be necessary, but we don't have to go overboard in that direction by leaving the field to incumbents only.

Watch Your Tax Bill

For years, town meeting has been influenced to a considerable degree by how much any specific article would raise the tax rate. Emphasis has been placed on that probability, in the belief that voters would drag their heels if the rate was going too high.

And this probably was effective, when the rate stood at $50, or $60 or $70. Because then, a dollar seemed like a tremendous boost. And an appropriation that would raise the rate by several dollars was considered cautiously.

Now we have a $26 rate.

This could easily go up to $31 next March, without appropriating any more money than has been promised by vote of the 1958 town meeting, which approved many appropriations for part of a year only. When the full year's total comes up, the increase may be startling. Thus we are forced to ask:

Will the same set of brakes be effective?

In some other communities, the lowering of the tax rate has resulted in a more progressive attitude towards spending. Fifty cents or a dollar, added to $26, doesn't seem quite so large, as does the same amount added to $60 or $70. And in those communities, the tax rates have speedily climbed to former heights, but with new and higher valuations.

We hope this will not happen here next March.

To avoid it, let's remember that the tax bill, not the rate, is the important item. When an appropriation is discussed, consider it in terms of what an increase in rate will do to your tax bill. And by doing so, you will automatically go slowly in appropriating large sums.

We would not wish to urge false economy, where it is necessary to spend money for worthwhile purposes. But it will be essential to study the requests carefully, to avoid pushing our taxes up any higher than absolutely necessary.

Lip Service, Only

We remarked a few weeks ago that some town officials, and some members of unofficial groups, were at least giving lip service to the garden apartment project. And we wondered whether there was sincerity in the comments; or, we asked, were they just a means of pacifying a group in the community which was upset by the rejection of this project.

One method of indicating sincerity, it was suggested, was to call a special town meeting to re-consider the subject in the light of new information. This would have given the men who objected, and who now apparently support, this project an opportunity to say so where it counts most.

Nothing was done.

It appears that nothing will be done, short of perhaps putting the article in the warrant for the annual meeting in March, when it may no longer be of anything but academic interest.

We're sorry that those in responsible positions have not acted with positive steps. For by not doing so, they have more or less answered our question: "Is it lip service only?"

A Worthy Cause

The folks in Shawsheen have a good idea working — and we hope there are no stumbling blocks to the establishment of a community center.

Certainly many youngsters in that area have difficulty getting up-town to the Youth Center. And thus the establishment of a center would be desirable. This, plus the use of the Shawsheen School gym, will make it possible to offer a reasonably good program.

As far as the adults are concerned, there is a shortage of good meeting space in the Village.

This makes it sensible to use a central place — the Richardson School possibly — for community gatherings.

But on top of all these desirable reasons for going forward with the Center, it is good to see a combination of all the associations in the Village, working for a common goal.

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago — December, 1908

Last Tuesday evening about 6 o'clock, Dr. P. S. Page found a strange, sick man in his office on Main st.

Lewis P. Lindsay has been elected captain of the Track team at Pynchard High School.

The Indian Ridge Kindergarten went on an excursion to Lawrence last week, to see all the Christmas toys on display.

Warren K. Moorehead, curator of the Archaeology Department at Phillips Academy, is preparing a new work, entitled "The Stone Age".

Matthew Burns was elected an alderman in Lawrence Tuesday.

A debate was held in Pemberton Hall, Lawrence, last Friday by the Andover and Lawrence debating groups. They took opposite sides of the question "Resolved, that President Roosevelt was justified in discharging the colored soldiers in Brownsville". The negative side won the debate.

25 Years Ago — December, 1933

The Finance Committee has recommended approval of articles in the special town meeting warrant that would have the town build a new junior high building, buy an electric pump and construct a new reservoir. The Committee turned down an article calling for construction of an assembly hall and gymnasium.

A new record was set at the library in November. The daily average of books borrowed was 300 — the first time this mark has been reached. In all, 7902 books went out during the month, with all but 652 of these being borrowed from the main library. The smaller number were used by Ballardvale residents.

Two major fires in Ballardvale late Sunday are being investigated by authorities. The first, in a storehouse, did slight damage, although giving firemen a strenuous workout for some minutes when they first reached the scene. The second almost destroyed the railroad station waiting room.

An old-time dancing party will be held at the Guild tonight under the sponsorship of the British War Veterans. The first two dances received good response and it is expected that the dances will be run every two weeks from now on.

Some 200 young men were added to the roster of the CCC camp in the Harold Parker State Forest this week. The men came here by railroad from a CCC camp in Danby, Vt.

10 Years Ago — December, 1948

The Public School Teachers' Association has requested a flat, across-the-board salary increase of $300. The School Committee took the request under advisement, after hearing the Association's argument that teachers are not receiving enough money.

Punchard beat No. Andover, 12-7, in the traditional Thanksgiving game at the Playstead. This established Punchard as the winner of the Little Three, and it also gave the Blue Devils a 7-2 season.

The all-night parking ban is in effect, lasting until spring. Chief George Dane has warned that all cars on the streets after 11 p.m. will be towed to a public garage, at the owner's expense. He said few cars were towed last year, as the residents cooperated well.

A site for the veteran's housing has been chosen at the easterly extension of Morton st. About 4½ acres are involved.

The first two peace-time draftees left Andover this week.

Parents have been asked not to call the school, if they don't hear the no-school signal. Instead, teachers and mothers have worked out an arrangement in which residents can call one of several homes in the community to receive the information.

Dollars and Sense

Massachusetts' budget problem is a simple matter of balancing income and outgo, according to the Taxpayers Federation. Current financial reports of the Commonwealth show that the state paid out $18,800,000 more than it took in during the year which ended June 30, 1958.

The Federation's analysis of state finances reveals that the state paid out for current operations a total of $291,800,000 and only collected $272,900,000 in revenue from taxes, licenses, fees and service charges of all kinds.

These figures, according to the Federation, are just for the state's ordinary operations. They do not include many millions of federal grants received and spent, or gas tax money received and spent for highways. They are the budget figures which reveal the budget problem most clearly.

Actually, the $18,800,000 is a gross understatement of the budget problem. For one thing, at the end of the year the state owed cities and towns over $24,000,000 in welfare reimbursements alone.

Obviously Massachusetts faces a major cut in spending or a major tax increase.

WEST PARISH CHURCH NEWS

The very lovely flowers on the Altar of the West Church last Sunday morning were the gift of Mrs. Albion Johnson and John D. Hall in memory of their parents.

Erickson Spoke To Lions On Schools

Superintendent of Schools Edward I. Erickson, speaking before a large meeting of the Andover Lions Club Monday evening at the Andover Inn, gave a most interesting talk on the Andover school system.

Recalling his days as active superintendent here in the early 1940's, when the enrollment was about 1200 pupils and the annual budget approximately $200,000, he drew an analogy to the present day with its enrollment of 3,000 pupils and a budget of close to $1,000,000, which could increase next year by another $200,000, as the enrollment soars at the rate of 150 to 200 pupils per year.

Mr. Erickson pointed out that the once small school system has grown up the line in leaps and bounds, with the teacher personnel increasing from 70 in the 1940's to 130 this year, some 16 more than in 1957. And another increase of 12 teachers is due in 1959. The past year, he said, there were 32 teachers appointed, of whom 16 were replacements of 16 for newly created positions. He discussed briefly the salary problem and mentioned that in the year several teachers were lost to Andover because of much higher offers elsewhere.

Mr. Erickson talked at some length about the various phases of the school department and many things offered the children, such as remedial reading, pointed out that half of the students is transported to and from school, eight buses being used, and he also spoke of the school cafeterias operated in each of the schools where hundreds are each day.

In closing Mr. Erickson thanked the Andover Lions club for their active support in helping the schools with a donation, the past year, of 12 pairs of glasses for needy children.

At the close of the meeting a letter was read from a little boy who was sent to camp last summer. He said in part: "Thank you for sending me to Camp All I have been doing well in all subjects and I like it here. I hope you have been feeling well. I forgot to tell you I am writing you about a horse and horse's name is Prince. So for now." This letter was written in Braille.

Erickson Spoke To Lions On Schools

Superintendent of Schools Ed Erickson, speaking before a large meeting of the Andover Lions Club Monday evening at the Andover Inn, gave a most enlightening talk on the Andover school system.

Recalling his days as active superintendent here in the early 1940's, when the enrollment was about 1200 pupils and the annual budget approximately $200,000, he drew an analogy to the present day with its enrollment of 3,145 pupils and a budget of close to $1,000,000, which could increase next year by another $200,000, as the enrollment soars at the rate of 150 to 200 pupils per year.

Mr. Erickson pointed out that the once small school system has come up the line in leaps and bounds, with the teacher personal increasing from 70 in the 1940's to 130 this year, some 16 more than in 1957. And another increase of 12 teachers is due in 1959. The past year, he said, there were 32 teachers appointed, of whom 16 were replacements and 16 for newly created positions. He discussed briefly the salary problem and mentioned that last year several teachers were lost to Andover because of much higher offers elsewhere.

Mr. Erickson talked at some length about the various phases of the school department and the many things offered the children such as remedial reading. He pointed out that half of the student body is transported to and from school, eight buses being used, and he also spoke of the school cafeterias operated in each of the schools where hundreds are fed each day.

In closing Mr. Erickson thanked the Andover Lions club for their active support in helping the schools with a donation, the past year, of 12 pairs of glasses to needy children.

At the close of the meeting a letter was read from a little blind girl who was sent to camp last summer. She said in part: "Thank you for sending me to Camp Allen. I have been doing well in all my subjects and I like it here. I hope you have been feeling well. Oh! I forgot to tell you I am writing a story about a horse and the horse's name is Prince. So long for now." This letter was written in braille.

MAIL COMES BY TRUCK FROM BOSTON STATION

Andover no longer receives mail via the railroad.

Postmaster Stephen A. Boland said this week that all mail is delivered here from Boston by truck, operating on regular schedules. The same vehicles pick up mail bound for Boston and other places on their return trips.

The truck makes three deliveries here each day, taking mail out of Andover each time. Ballardvale mail is now delivered to the Andover post office and is picked up by messenger from the Vale, thus cutting out the train deliveries there.

Boland said the advent of new types of railroad locomotives have reduced the number of baggage cars, in which mail was formerly carried, beyond stating that he will assume the task.

Although it has been reported in other newspapers, and has been the subject of much discussion among townspeople, it is impossible to receive confirmation that Syd Watson might accept the basketball coaching job when he finishes the pro-football season.

The basketball vacancy resulted from the resignation of Robert Collier from the High School faculty this fall.

MRS. EATON LEFT $55,000

The will of Mrs. Lucy A. Eaton, 49 Abbot st., who died Nov. 16, was filed in Probate court Nov. 19. Value of the estate was listed as: Real estate, $20,000; personal estate, $35,000. Roland H. Sherman of Andover was nominated as executor of the will.

The will directed that $1,000 be given to the South Congregational Church, in memory of Mrs. Eaton and her late husband, Thaxter Eaton.

A grandfather's clock was bequeathed to the trustees of Phillips Academy. Cousins in Cambridge, Vermont, Florida, Minnesota and Missouri were each left $500, the bequests totalling $4,000.

Real estate at 49 Abbot st., was left to Richard S. Douglas, husband of Frances C. Douglas of East Douglas.

BEQUEATHED HIS WIDOW ESTATE

All of his property, whose value was not estimated, was bequeathed to his widow, Mrs. Annie P. Greenhow, under terms of the will of John M. Greenhow of Andover, it was made known when the instrument was recorded in the Registry of Probate.

Mr. Greenhow, who died Oct. 17, signed the testament May 26, 1954 and nominated Mrs. Greenhow as the executrix. The probate petition listed three children as Miss Isabella T.L. Greenhow, Mrs. Gladys G. Lamb and John M. Greenhow Jr., all of Andover.

AVIS Heard Interesting Talk

The Andover Village Improvement Society held its annual meeting in the Memorial Library with George K. Lewis of the Andover Valley Trustees in Wayland speaking on "Saving Land for the Future".

The theme of Mr. Lewis' talk was basically on how to maintain the "green character" of the towns and countryside. He opened his remarks by comparing the topography of Wayland and Andover, and found a striking resemblance between them. Towns are located within commuting distance of heavily populated centers, and both the attraction of relaxed outdoor living in addition to many advantages. "It is the attractiveness of places", said Mr. Lewis, "that makes them grow". Real estate statistics show that one of every six Americans lives in a suburb.

The S.V.T. is meeting the challenge, not as an abstract ideal but as a reality to be met on equal terms. Backed by an organization of nearly 500 members and the active co-operation of some 30 adjoining towns in the Sudbury Valley, the Society can point to significant accomplishments.

Following an energetic presentation it helps the schools teach children nature study, helps interested groups on recreation projects, takes on the problem of watershed protection for the towns, and furnishes on its acres a permanent sanctuary for wildlife. It opens up trails for hikers, provides recreation areas for swimming, picnics, fishing, and boating. Beautifully colored slides depicting those activities, at the reality of what is being done by the S.V.T.

Harold R. Rafton announced that the deed to Bakers was recorded Oct. 15. Registry in Lawrence and in the hands of the treasurer of the Society.

Clifford E. Marshall resigned as president after serving for years, but he will continue as a member of the Board of Trustees.

The five new trustees to the Board are as follows: John C. Brown, John W. MacDonald Jr., Albert Metelle and George K. Sanborn.

The officers elected were: Mrs. John C. Brown, president; Harold R. Rafton, vice president; Albert R. MacDonald Jr., second vice president; Lester C. Newton, treasurer.

Miss Doris Newton of Andover, Vt., spent the holiday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Newton of Boutwell rd.

The Andover Village Improvement Society held its annual meeting in the Memorial Library, with George K. Lewis of the Sudbury Valley Trustees in Wayland speaking on "Saving Land for the Future".

The theme of Mr. Lewis' talk was basically on how to maintain the "green character" of our towns and countryside. He opened his remarks by comparing the topography of Wayland and Andover, and found a striking resemblance between them. Both towns are located within easy commuting distance of heavily populated centers, and both offer the attraction of relaxed outdoor living in addition to many other advantages. "It is the attractiveness of places", said Mr. Lewis, "that makes them grow". Recent statistics show that one out of every six Americans lives in a suburb.

The S.V.T. is meeting the challenge, not as an abstract idea, but as a reality to be met on equal terms. Backed by an organization of nearly 500 members and the active co-operation of some 30 adjoining towns along the Sudbury Valley, the S.V.T. can point to significant achievements.

Following an energetic program, it helps the schools teach the children nature study, helps adults or interested groups on research projects, takes on the problem of watershed protection for member towns, and furnishes on its 400 acres a permanent sanctuary for wildlife. It opens up trails for hikers, provides recreational areas for swimming, skating, picnics, fishing, and boating. The beautifully colored slides, depicting those activities, attest to the reality of what is being done by the S.V.T.

Pins Presented To Pack 76 Members

Cub Pack 76 held its monthly meeting in the Ballardvale Community Room last Monday evening. Each cub attending was accompanied by his father. Cubmaster Ellsworth Spencer conducted the Bob-Cat ceremony and pins were presented to the following boys: William Spencer, George Moss, Douglas Audette, Phillip Newcomb, Paul Mills, Edward Colman, Lawrence Lawson, Stephen Richards, Derick Fisher and William Stevens. Donald Wrigley was presented his bear badge.

It was announced that the next meeting Dec. 15 would be in the form of a Christmas party.

During the evening, movies of Boy Scout field trips were shown as were movies of the Cubs taking part in the parade. These were taken by Mrs. Spencer.

Snow Money About Gone

Less than $500 is left in the town's snow removal account - with the possibility that at least one major storm in December might more than use up this amount.

The Board of Public Works has notified the Finance Committee that the balance is sadly depleted and has asked that some plan be worked out to provide necessary funds if a storm is experienced.

Office Manager Calvin Metcalfe said FinCom secretary William Rhoads has suggested that money only be transferred to meet specific payrolls and expenses - rather than making a lump sum available before it is actually needed.

Here Are The Restrictions Placed On Vacant Lot Use

These are the basic restrictions at the center of the controversy between Woodworth Motor Co. and the Appeals Board, with objections from the Insurance Companies in the Village.

Mr. Woodworth wants the restrictions lifted — the Insurance Companies want them retained.

As listed here, the restrictions are paraphrased, but the meaning has not been changed:

1. No building can be erected without approval from the Board of Appeals, after a public hearing.
2. A hedge must be maintained at least 18 inches from the bottom of an iron fence.
3. The only advertising sign allowed can be of no more than 15 square feet in area; located not nearer than 50 feet to any street line; and advertising the name of owner or business transacted.
4. No lighting allowed, except lights along Haverhill and No. Main sts., shielded so as not to be visible from the street; and located no higher than the top of the hedge.
5. No advertising can be placed on any car on the lot.
6. May not be used for storage or sale of "stripped" cars.
7. No driveways or entrances allowed to the lot, except one from Haverhill st. near the easterly boundary of the premises.
8. All provisions of the building code and zoning by-law must be complied with.
9. If all or a portion of the lot is sold, the same restrictions pertain to its use by new owner.

At a recent meeting with the Board of Selectmen, Town Counsel Vincent A. Stulgis termed the restrictions "capricious and arbitrary". He ruled that Woodworth could have his building permit for the sales room, without Board of Appeals action, following the same line of reasoning suggested by Atty Roland Sherman at the hearing Monday night.

Atty. Stulgis also told the building inspector that he had no grounds, except for violation of the building code, to revoke the permit.

Inspector Ernest N. Hall, who did revoke the permit on the grounds that Appeals Board action is required, has said he did not realize the restrictions were in force, or he would not have issued the permit at all.

SENATOR'S SECRETARIES HONORED AT RECEPTION

3 Soloists For Messiah Dec. 21

Three popular soloists will appear Dec. 21, when the Andover Choral Society presents George Frederick Handel's Messiah in Cochran Chapel.

The 8 o'clock performance will be the 23rd annual presentation here of this familiar Christmas music.

Over 80 voices will be heard in the choral group, directed by J. Everett Collins. The group is built around the Andover Male Choir, also directed by Mr. Collins.

Ruby Slavin, soprano; Donald Sullivan, tenor; and Elsie Gerling, contralto make up the trio of soloists.

Edward Flint, organist at Brooks School, will be at the organ console and Anne DiLavore will be the pianist.

Rehearsals for the performance are being conducted every Tuesday night at the Junior High School music room.

Although a section of the Chapel will be reserved for sponsors, there are no tickets for the performance. Interested listeners will be seated in the Chapel on a first-come, first seated basis.
